Residency and Educational Rights

Students who are in temporary, inadequate and/or homeless living situations have the following rights:

- 1) Immediate enrollment in the school they last attended or in the school area they are currently residing in even if they do not have all of the documents normally required at the time of enrollment;
- 2) Access to free meals, textbooks, Title I/other educational programs and other similar services including transportation;
- 3) To attend the same classes and activities that students in other living situations also participate in without any fear of being separated or treated differently due to their housing situations.

Any questions about these rights can be directed to the local McKinney-Vento Liaison at (317) 788-4481 or the State Coordinator at (800) 833-2199.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received and understand the above rights.
